Northern Ireland Ambulance Service's post

Northern Ireland Ambulance Service
26 July 2024 ·

NIAS is excited to participate again in Belfast Pride 2024 along with colleagues across HSC. We want to acknowledge and recognise the huge contribution of our LGBTQ+ workforce and to show our support for the wider community we serve in Northern Ireland.

There are plenty of “excited” very sick people waiting hours for an ambulance to come but they don’t arrive for a very long time because of under staffing
